SALE OF SELECT

Shorthorns

ALLENDALE FARM

LIBERTYVILLE, ILL.

J. D. ALLEN, . . Owner

at Chicago

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1941

Announcement

MY Shorthorns are a source of great pride to me and I have been much impressed by the expressions made by visiting breeders when commenting on the general merit of the herd.

It is true, of course, that I have aimed to buy good cattle only, both in Great Britain and North America.

It has been our purpose when selecting the entries for my second Public Sale to offer a good number that are as choice as any we are retaining in the herd, being anxious that the offering please to the fullest extent.

Yours truly,

JOHN D. ALLEN

A Splendid Offering

A LLENDALE Herd was built upon a foundation of the best blood. Mr. Allen has imported many fine cows and heifers that are descended from the best Shorthorns of Scotland's leading herds and that were sired by the bulls that have been making contemporary history for the breed but he selected also, for his foundation, many of the tops of America's best herds. From such a foundation it is not surprising that his sale offerings present Shorthorns of the greatest value for herd improving.

Those who know Shorthorn pedigrees will recognize the ones in this catalog to be as desirable upon which to build as can be found anywhere in the world. The cattle themselves are what is to be expected from such exemplary breeding. Nowhere can one find for sale a better or more useful lot of matrons in better condition to make a profit for the purchaser. Every bred cow and heifer is an example of what a true Shorthorn breeding matron should be. They have the character that will improve the breed. Their type more nearly approaches the ideal than will be found in other offerings. In quality they are superb and their calves at foot prove the value of mating such females with bulls of the highest Shorthorn standards.

The open heifers are grand prospective breeding matrons and several of them can be shown with success this year at the biggest shows.

The bulls are all by one sire and their uniformity as well as the excellence of their type gives assurance that they will breed uniformly and well. Like the females, their pedigrees cannot be improved upon and their true lines, deep, low-set bodies, good heads and rich color make this sale an ideal place to procure a great sire.

In last year's Allendale sale were sold many fine females, some of which brought seemingly high prices but all of which have proved profitable for their buyers. A bull was sold that put a new top on price for the year when he was sold. This year's offering will be found to be superior even to the grand lot of Shorthorns sold in that sale.

WILL JOHNSON
of The Shorthorn World.

Lot 1. Allendale Watchman      Lot 3. Allendale Chief      Lot 6. Allendale Fusilier
 Lot 5. Allendale Elect      Lot 4. Allendale Chancellor      Lot 2. Allendale Victorious

Allendale Elect by Cluny Brigadier Command, a first prize bull at Perth, has for his dam, Delphine Estelle, top female of the imported lot she came out with.

Allendale Chief is by Sultan Outlaw, dam Kinellar Thuster Rose by Kinellar Outlaw bred by S. Campbell. His picture does not do him justice for he has a splendid head, is short of neck, carries great thickness of heart and crop.

Allendale Chancellor is the best bull that has been produced at Allendale—wonderful head, tremendous thickness and depth. Orient Clipper, his imported dam, is a very high-class matron. The buyer of Allendale Chancellor can be confident that he is securing a great herd bull prospect.

Allendale Fusilier by Sultan Outlaw, dam Kalarama Flora 11th, is just about perfect in his conformation. His photograph tells the story in this respect. Kalarama Flora 11th is a wonderful producer. Her last year's heifer sold to C. C. W. Middleton for $630.

Allendale Victorious is a good headed, prepotent-looking type of bull. Very smooth, lets down well in his quarters, has the right amount of bone and substance.

It will be seen at a glance that the photograph made of these six top bulls produced at Allendale in 1940 has not had the negative touched in any manner. These young bulls are shown to you here just as they are in life.

I N the foreground of the above picture is Imp. Larbert Fickle Wimple 4th, Lot 19 of this catalog, also her imp.-in-dam red cow calf by Larbert Embassy.

It will be noted that the usual reference as to the individual merit of each animal has been omitted, this for the reason that all of this Allendale offering with the exception of two head that were missed, are illustrated and show exactly what they are except that perhaps these pictures do not flatter any of the subjects. The two head not photographed are Imp. Eda Butterfly, Lot 7, a grand cow due to calve by sale time, and Imp. Scotston Dorothy 7th by Beaufort Field Marshal. There are few, if any, better ones in the sale.

It will also be noted that five heifers in the sale are bred to Imp. Cruggleton Caesar, present stock bull at Anoka Farm. He is by the same sire as the $1,375 Reigning Sovereign, namely Garguson Sovereign that would probably never have left Scotland had it been known what kind of stock he would sire, for he left some outstanding get. Cruggleton Caesar is a good red and one of the best bulls that has been imported. His dam is Clipper Ronda by Cruggleton Essander.

Mr. Allen is parting with a liberal number of imported cows and heifers either with calves or close to calving. It is now very difficult to import and this fresh breeding is especially valuable.
